ECOL'S INTERESTS IN COAL BUSINESS

Wyoming Coal Co. and the Eccles Coal Co. Will Operate to Prevent Fuel Famine.

CLARK SENTENCE POSTPONED.

Old Time Ball in Weber Stake Academy—Executions Against Railroad Companies—News Briefs.

Ogden, Nov. 15.—Two new coal companies, the latest acquisitions to the Eccles interests in this city, have been incorporated under the laws of Utah during the past 24 hours. One is the Wyoming Coal company which will operate the mines at Blair, Wyo., and the other is the Eccles Coal company organized to operate the newly acquired Grass Creek mines near Coalville, Utah. The former has a capital stock of $100,000 and the latter $250,000. The par value of the shares are $100. The Wyoming Coal company according to the papers filed here yesterday, is incorporated for the purpose of operating coal mines, railroads, etc. Its property was acquired by the Eccles interests early last spring. All of the stock is owned by Ogden parties excepting that owned by P. C. Kittle of Salt Lake. Each of the incorporators have 10 shares of the capital stock and Mr. Kittle has 800 shares as trustee. The officers are: President, P. C. Kittle; vice president, Abram Patterson; secretary-treasurer, John P. Kittle. These with L. R. Eccles and E. S. Rolapp compose the board of directors. The Eccles Coal company filed its incorporation articles with the county clerk today. The property consists of 1,000 acres of coal lands and eight miles of railroad. Virtually the same persons are identified with the Wyoming company are connected with this concern. This property has been in operation under the new management since Oct. 1 and has supplied all of the fuel for Park City since that time. Its officers are: President, David Eccles; vice president, M. H. Browning; secretary-treasurer, H. H. Rolapp.
